New Yorkers are promised a novel experience this season—that of the Bayreuth fashion of going to the opera, figuratively speaking, in the afternoon. The Wagneries have cried out so lustily Opera to for the whole trilogy that it has finally been arranged to Begin give it in its entirety. To accomplish this it will be necessary to begin the performance at 6:30. Second Seco

This upheaval of established customs will mean a vast amount of controversy as to the proper dinner hour and the comme it faut costume. As there is only one series of performances arranged so far three dinners will, doubtless, be sacrifized without hesitation in such a case.

The probabilities are that no matter how

Among the people in the "Heart of the Klendike" company at the Gillses this week are Neilie Massell, who was the wife of Valentine Love, the old Kanass City theatrical manager, and her daughter, the sometiete of the company, who has assumed the name of Lettie Williams for stage purposes. Miss Maskell will be remembered as a favnite of farmer days, when the theatrical business of Kanass City was young.

The Apollo Club promises a niest unique and entertaining evening in Loveum hall Saurday. November 15, in the shape of a recital by Mr. Durward Lely, the emittent Scotch ballad singer. Mr. Lely is a being with a benufful, sampathetic voice well satisfed to ballad singing. His recitals are made up of Scotch ballads and sings, interspersed with excellent anecdotes characteristic of South humber and wit. He is wait to be in South was what Plunket Greens is in Irish song. Mr. Lely has sung all over the world, and from all acceptate his auccess has been most marked.

Mrs. Ham-Speyer's presentation of "In a Perslan tearden" has been set for the evening of November 5 at the Academy of Music, an earlier date than was originally amounced. The success of this remarkable quartette has been very panomiced wherever it has been presented. It is based upon Omar Khayyam's "Rubaiyat," and has much sole ower for each member of the quartette. It will be sung in Kansas City by Mrs. Ham-Speyer, Mr. Burnett, Mr. Hollenback and Mr. Milla who have been rehearing for some time, and are very enthusiastic over the music, which is by Lira Lehmann.

W. M. Wilkison, formerly manager of Alexander Salvini, will produce about Navember 15 a new comedy entitled "A Stranger in a Strange Land." The scenes of the piece are laid in England, and the "Stranger" is a Chérokee thier who has been taken over there by a Western doors as an advertisement over there by a Western doors as an advertisement over there by a Western doors as an advertisement of his indian bitters, which he proposes to inflict on the unsuspecting British public. The dactor and indian became temporarily mixed up in the household of a swell family at their country home near London, and many amusing complications arise therefrom. The authors of the comedy are Sidney Wilmer and Walter Vincent.

FINAL MUSTER OUT.

Third Will Don Civilian's Attire November 7 and the Fifth Two Days Later.

On one week from to-morrow, or Nocember 7, the Third regiment will be musered out of the government service, and two days later the members of the Fifth regiment will drop their blue uniforms and regiment will drop their blue uniforms and again don the garb of the civilian. The work preliminary to the muster out has been given so good a start and is so well systematized as to authorize Lieutenant Plynn to make this announcement. Unless some unforeseen incident arises to delay matters the work will be completed on those dates.

ay matters the work will be compacted on those dates.

The physical examination of Company C. Fifth regiment, and Companies E. A and C. of the Third, was made yesterday. The doctors did not work with the men of the Fifth in the afternoon because the list of persons who have filed disability claims and who, consequently will have to be re-examined, is so large as to crowd the examiners. The number of soldlers in the companies examined yesterday who claimed to have allments, was smaller, however, companies examined yesterday who claimed to have aliments, was smaller, however, than on the first examining day, and the number of pensions which members of yesterday's companies will be able to collect will not be large.

Although this will not be their last Sunday in camp, the men of the Flifth will hold special farewell services at the den this afternoon. Chaplain W. C. Coleman this afternoon, chaptain will preach an apthis afternoon. Chaplain W. C. Coleman will be in charge and will preach an appropriate sermon, and Colonel Milton Moore will address his men. A general invitation is extended to the public to show their appreciation of the patriotic services of Missouri's sons, by attending.

Privates in the Third Arrested. William Kelley and James McDimmitt, privates in the Third regiment, were arrested yesterday afternoon and booked at police headquarters for disorderly conduct. They are accused of an unmentionable offense.
